

Statement of Core Values

METÀFORA CENTRE D' ESTUDIS

METÀFORA

At Metàfora, we are guided by principles that affirm dignity, creativity, and coexistence:

Non-violence

At Metàfora, we reject all forms of physical, verbal, and structural violence and abuse. We are committed to fostering dialogue, understanding, and peaceful interaction.

Freedom of expression and identity

Metàfora believes that every individual has the right to express their identity—creatively, culturally, and personally—without fear of censorship or discrimination, while upholding a profound respect for others in all forms of communication.

Equality and inclusion

Diversity is not only respected but celebrated as a vital source of strength and perspective.

At Metàfora, we stand for equal rights and opportunities regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, or sexual identity.

Climate and ecology

We believe that the climate crisis is an urgent and shared responsibility. We are committed to practices that respect and protect the environment and promote sustainability in all our activities. We also seek to distance ourselves from anthropocentric attitudes, recognizing that human life is part of a broader ecosystem that must be respected, not dominated.

Rejection of war-promoting governments and ideologies

We strongly reject and distance ourselves from governments and political actors that initiate, justify, or perpetuate war, aggression, or any form of oppression. We oppose the normalization of violence as a political tool and stand for peace, accountability, and respect for human life across all borders.
